Drop Seen in Measles Rate In This Area

Although the number of cases has declined somewhat, measles was still the leading disease in the Torrance health area during the period ending June 4, according to the County Health Department.

Thirty-three cases of the disease, 18 of them in Torrance, were reported. Other reports included County areas, eight; Redondo Beach, four; Hermosa Beach, two; and Gardena, one.

Throughout Los Angeles County, measles have been on the rampage, running nearly four times heavier than at the same time in 1954. This year, 14,326 cases have been reported, compared with 4,705 last year.

Other diseases reported in the Torrance area included mumps, 17; chickenpox, 11; German measles, eight; infectious hepatitis and tuberculosis, each four; and scarlet fever and syphilis, each three.

The city of Torrance had four cases of mumps, two each of chickenpox, German measles, and tuberculosis; and infectious hepatitis and scarlet fever, each one.

(Herald photo) SHOO, FLY! . . . Mrs. A. R. Spangler, of 17803 Atkinson Ave., goes to work on the files around her house, which she says number in the millions. She and neighbors have been plagued with the pesky visitors, which she blames on nearby dairies. After a campaign to clean up the area last year, the fly population decreased, but has come back stronger than ever this year, she says. Fly specks which cover window sills, lampshades, curtains, and other furnishings make it impossible to keep a house clean, she says.

Boys Sign up For 'Y' Camp

A total of 51 boys have signed up for the YMCA Camp Round Meadow, July 12-19, and 11 for the High Sierra Caravan August 6-13.

Stan Roberts, executive secretary of the "Y", said the purpose of the camps is to help youngsters learn to live with each other, to take care of themselves in the outdoors, and to find a religious reason for their lives.

Will Honor Volunteers

Mrs. Catherine Peters, 331 Calle de Andalucia, will be among 65 women of the county who will receive awards for 100 or more hours of volunteer service to the health department at the annual meeting of the Citizen's Advisory Committee on Tuesday, June 14, at Monrovia Elks Club in Monrovia.

New officers will be elected and installed.

Street Closing Told

Temporary closure of two public thoroughfares in the Victor area during the construction of a County trunk sewer line was authorized Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors.

According to Supervisor Burton W. Chase, Vermont Ave. between 220th and 223rd Sts. will be closed for several days this week and 220th St. between Vermont and Normandie Aves. will be barricaded for a number of days beginning June 13.
